Topic: Leadership at the Intersection of Statistics and Psychometrics

Join us for a webinar on the topic of leadership in the fields of statistics and psychometrics!

This event aims to promote leadership skills in statistics and psychometrics, discuss how to successfully bridge the interests of these two fields, and explore ways for statisticians and data scientists to build collaborations in educational and psychological research areas.

Statisticians, data scientists, and psychometricians at any stage in their careers are invited to attend.
